Mr. WILLIAM TUCKER, with such assistance as he may employ, is authorized to receive subscribers and advertisements for the "Daily Evening Star." Mr. TUCKER will wait on the citizens of Georgetown.

Persons wishing to be served with the "EVENING STAR" will leave their names and address at James Kelly's 1st ward, Bishop's periodical store adjoining Willard's, A. Tate's near 11th street, J. M. Brown's Hotel, James Winer's 6th street, or at Joe Shilington's Olden Building. Advertisements can be left at the above places.

Local Affairs.

The lectures at the Smithsonian Institution are well attended by citizens and strangers notwithstanding the unfavorable state of the weather and the paths leading to the building. These lectures are truly intellectual treats, being open and free for all who desire to hear them.

The National Theatre was crowded last night to witness the performance of Hackett in Sir John Falstaff. All who attended seemed to be well satisfied with the performance. To night he appears in two favorite characters and we have no doubt but that it will attract another large audience.

SERIOUS CHARGE.—A woman named Eliza Watson was taken before Justice Beck yesterday, charged with throwing vitriol, or some liquid of a like nature, in the face of C. A. Stewart injuring him severely. At the examination yesterday it was stated that Eliza's mother was a white woman. It is supposed that the evidence of Stewart, who is a colored man, will not be taken against her in this case. We are not sufficiently "larned in the law" to decide; but we presume that Justice Beck will endeavor to do so at the further examination.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Two negroes were whipped at the watch house this morning for beating and robbing a young man on the Bladensburg road. Six were concerned in the robbery, but two only have as yet been arrested by officers Willett and Adams.

John Meath was sent to jail yesterday morning for an assault and battery upon four persons at Brown's Hotel. The assault was unprovoked.

The journal of the central watch house gives the names of six persons who went there for lodging. Four negroes were taken there for being out after hours; they were discharged by the captain of the guard. A negress named Charlotte Lindsly, an old customer, was found drunk in the street; she was sent to the workhouse this morning. Three little boys were taken for entering the Theatre by means of a false key. Two were taken out by their father, and one was sent to the workhouse.

What will you take? asked the sheriff of the culprit he was about to hang. "Not a drop," was the quaint reply of the criminal.

What is justice? A pair of scales in which the actions of mankind are often weighed, the true weight being sometimes bought up by power and wealth, while others that are incorrect are substituted.

A mechanic his labor will often discard, If the rate of his pay he dislikes; But a clock—and its case is uncommonly hard— Will continue to work though it strikes."

Take Notice.—Are you dry or hungry? If you call at Uncle JEMMY where the best fried oysters can be had as well as oyster soup. His oyster and other pies are hard to beat, and the manner in which his beefsteaks, chops, &c. are cooked is a caution to the hungry. His ale is of superior kind. Our friend takes lodgers, furnishes meals at short notice at any time from 7 o'clock A. M. until 11 P. M. Suppers can be had for respectable ladies and gentlemen. He keeps a civil, quiet, and genteel house.

UNCLE JEMMY'S FRIEND.

GRAND MILITARY AND CIVIC BALL. The Committee of Arrangements take pleasure in announcing that the Annual Ball of the WASHINGTON LIGHT INFANTRY will take place on Monday night, the 10th of January, at Jackson Hall. As it is the intention of the company to conduct this ball similar to those given in former years, the committee deem it proper to state that a supper will be furnished by a competent caterer, and every effort will be made to make it equal to any ball ever given by the company.

Tickets $2, to be had at the usual places. JOSEPH B. TATE, JOHN F. TUCKER, JAMES KELLY, JOHN W. MADD, JUDSON O. WANNER, JAMES E. POWERS, J. M. MARSOLETTI, J. F. MITCHELL, JAMES A. KING, Committee of Arrangements. dec 21

A TEMPERANCE JOKE. Joe Harrison was a whole-souled, merry fellow, and very fond of a glass. After living in New Orleans for many years, he came to the conclusion to visit an old uncle, away up in Massachusetts, whom he had not seen for many years. Now, there is a difference between New Orleans and Massachusetts, in regard to the use of ardent spirits: and when Joe arrived there and found all the people run mad about temperance, he felt bad, thinking, with the old song, that "keeping the spirits up by pouring the spirits down," was one of the best ways to make time pass, and began to fear indeed, that he was in a pickle. But on the morning after his arrival, the old man and his sons being out at work, his aunt came to him and said—

"Joe, you have been living in the south and no doubt are in the habit of taking a little something to drink at about eleven o'clock. Now I keep some here for medicinal purposes, but let no one know it, as my husband wants to set the boys a good example."

Joe promised, and thinking he could get no more that day, took, as he expressed it, "a regular buster." After that, he walked out to the stable, and who should he meet but his uncle.

"Well, Joe," says he, "I expect you are accustomed to drink something in New Orleans, but you find us all temperance here, and for the sake of my sons, I don't let them know that I have any brandy about; but I just keep a little here for my rheumatism. Will you accept a little?"

Joe signified his readiness, and took another big horn. Then continuing his walk he came to where the boys were hauling rails. After conversing awhile, one of his cousins said—

"Joe, I expect you would like to have a drink, and as the old folks are down on liquor, we keep some out here to help us on with our work."

Out came a little bottle, and down they sat; and he says that by the time he went home to dinner, he was as tight as he well could be, and all from visiting a temperance family.

In D'Israeli's Curiousities of Literature we find the following passage showing the temper with which religious controversy was conducted in the 16th century:

"Calvin was less tolerable, for he had no Melancthon. His adversaries are never others than knaves, lunatics, drunkards and assassins. Sometimes they are characterized by the familiar appellatives of bulls, asses, cats, and dogs. By him Catholic and Lutheran are alike hated. Yet, after having given vent to this virulent humor, he frequently boasts of his mildness. When he reads over his writings he tells us that he is astonished at his forbearance, but, this he adds, is the duty of every Christian! At the same time he generally finishes with 'Do you hear, you dog?' 'Do you hear, you madman?'"

The money disbursed by Louis Napoleon during his month's tour, exceeds thirty-one millions of francs, or a million and a quarter sterling.

SHOOTING CASE.—A row occurred on Friday evening, at an oyster cellar at the northwest corner of Third and Chesnut sts., Philadelphia, in which Singleton A. Mercer was somewhat injured about the head. It appears that there was a great noise and confusion on the premises about 1 o'clock in the morning. During the excitement a pistol was fired. The watchman on the beat made an effort to enter the cellar, but was compelled to burst open the door before he could effect his purpose. Upon entering the saloon, the officer found Mr. Mercer lying upon the floor and bleeding considerably from a wound in his head. Two men, named Wm. Buck and Edward McCann, were arrested for participating in the disturbance. Blood was found upon his clothes. Mercer was examined before the mayor. He said he had been shot in the head. It is, we believe, a general impression, that the wound in Mr. Mercer's head was caused by a blow from a stick, and that the shot he received was in the neck.—Pennsylvanian

In the scale of pleasure, the lowest are sensual delights, which are succeeded by the more enlarged views and gay portraiture of a lively imagination; and these give way to the sublimer pleasures of reason, which discover the cause and designs, the form, connection and symmetry of things, and fill the mind with the contemplation of intellectual beauty, order and truth.

The number of bibles weekly sold in Cincinnati, is said to be enormous, much greater than any would suppose from the condition of morals in that city. Like other precious volumes they are no doubt largely purchased but little read, their buyers believing they perform a sacred obligation by gaining possession of them, without feeling any necessity of becoming acquainted with their contents.

"TAKE HIM OUT."—The best joke that we have heard related of the believers in "spiritual knockings," is told of a man in Norfolk county, in this State, who a few weeks since visited the house of a neighboring farmer, and as soon as the dishes were removed from the supper table, proposed to have a "sitting" with the family in the kitchen, to see if his dear guardian angel, St. Luke, would not make some new revelation.

After sitting in death-like silence for about ten minutes, some one hinted the possibility of the gentleman's being mistaken about his receiving communications from St. Luke; whereupon the spiritualist brought his fist down upon the table with decided emphasis, and exclaimed—

"Gentlemen, I know that I've had communications from my dear guardian angel, St. Luke. Yes you may laugh as much as you like, but St. Luke is in the room now! Yes, his blessed spirit is here! I feel something new in my trousers! Yes! I—O! ah! ki-yi! ki-yi! take him out! take him out!"

And here the gentleman leaped from his chair, grasped with both hands that portion of his pantaloons which is usually worn thinnest, and begged the spectators in the most piteous tones, to "take him out, or he should die on the spot."

Requesting the ladies to leave the room, the gentlemen present made an examination of the spiritualist's pantaloons, and found them to contain a mouse, that by the stillness of the company, had been induced to leave his quarters and search for crumbs upon the floor.

It is not known whether the gentleman still believes that he is watched over by his friend St. Luke, as he now avoids all spiritual assemblies, and is immediately silenced whenever he attempts to introduce the subject of spiritual knockings, by the mischievous boys exclaiming:

"Take him out! take him e-o-u-t!"—Boston Museum.

The Clay monument at Pottsville, Pa., is progressing rapidly, and it is said will be finished by the 4th of July next.

A teaspoonful of horse-radish, put into a pan of milk will preserve the milk sweet for several days either in the open air or in the cellar, while other milk will turn quite sour.

"Well, Pat, which is the way to Burlington?" "How did ye know me name was Pat?" "O, I guessed it." "Thin, be the powers if ye air so good at guessing ye'd better guess the way to Burlington!"

It was a wise saying of Burke, that "rage and phrenzy will pull down more in half an hour, than prudence, deliberation, and foresight, can build up in a hundred years."

"Dang me if I don't believe the world's a wheelbarrow," said a jolly inebriate, as he rolled along the pavement, "and I'm the wheel revolving on a haxis. Now I'm in the mud," said he, as he fell headlong in the gutter, "and now I'm on dry land," as he fetched up on the curb stone. His concluding remarks, as his boots followed his head down an open cellar way was, "now the wheel is broken, and the vehicle is out of repair."

ENGLISH MANNERS.—The boorishness of American manners is frequently discussed by travellers with severity. The following is a little illustration of British genius in the same line:

"It is not three months since an Englishman, to all outward appearance a gentleman, was in great danger of getting soundly thrashed by his fellow travellers for persisting in stretching one leg on the seat opposite him, and letting the other dangle out of the window of a railway carriage in which two ladies were seated. This discreditable affair took place between Leipzig and Magdeburg, and the only excuse which can be made for the principle actor in it was his youth and inexperience."

CAUSE OF INSANITY.—Dr. Howe has examined almost the entire number of cases of idiocy known in Massachusetts, and the result is, in all but four instances, he found the parents of all those idiots were either intemperate, addicted to sensual vices, scrofulous, pre disposed to insanity, or had inter-married with blood relations.

MORTALITY IN THE CITIES.—During the week ending on Monday last, there were 329 deaths in New York, 168 in Philadelphia, 104 in Baltimore, and 77 in Boston. This is a small increase over the number for the previous week in all the cities except Boston. In Cincinnati during the month of November there were 233 deaths. The Board of Health of that city have resolved to publish hereafter monthly reports of the deaths occurring there.

DR. JOHNSTON PROCLAIMS TO THE AFFLICTED that he has discovered the most certain, speedy and efficacious plan of treating SECRET DISEASES that has ever yet been presented to the world. By his plan, founded on observation made in the Hospitals of Europe and America, he will insure A CURE IN FIFTY DAYS, OR NO CHARGE. No Mercury or Nauseous Drugs used. Weakness, Loss of Organic Powers, Pains in the Loins, Disease of the Kidneys, Affections of the Head, Throat, Nose and Skin, Constitutional Debility, and all those horrid affections arising from a Certain Secret Habit of Youth, that solitary practice, more fatal to the victims than the song of the Sirens to the mariners of Ulysses—blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering Marriage, etc., impossible. A CURE WARRANTED, OR NO CHARGE. Young Men especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entrusted themselves to the thunders of eloquence, or walked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE. Married persons, or those contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, should immediately consult Dr. J. and be restored to perfect health. Office, No. 7 South Frederick street, Baltimore, Maryland, on the left hand side, going from Baltimore street, seven doors from the corner. Be particular in observing the name and number, or you will mistake the place.

DR. JOHNSTON, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgences, that secret and solitary habit, which ruins both body and mind, and thus renders them either business or society. These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Business of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c., &c.

Mentally.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion of Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

NERVOUS DEBILITY. Weakness of the system, Nervous Debility and premature decay generally arise from the destructive habit of youth, that solitary practice fatal to the healthful existence of man, and it is the young who are most apt to become its Victims, from an ignorance of the dangers to which they subject themselves. Parents and Guardians are often misled with respect to the cause or source of disease in their sons and wards. Alas! how often do they ascribe to other causes the wasting of the frame, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, derangement of the Nervous System, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption; also those serious Mental effects, such as loss of Memory, Depression of Spirits, or peculiar fits of Melancholy, when the truth is, they have been caused by indulging in Pernicious but alluring practices, destructive to both Body and Mind. These are swept from existence thousands who might have been of use to their Country, a pleasure to their friends, and ornaments to Society.

DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

This grand and important Remedy has restored strength and vigor to thousands of the most debilitated individuals, many who had lost all hopes, and been abandoned to die. By its complete invigoration of the Nervous System, the whole faculties become restored to their proper power and functions, and the fallen fabric of life is raised up to beauty, consistency and duration, upon the ruins of an emaciated and premature decline, to sound and pristine health. Oh, how happy have hundreds of misguided youths been made, who have been suddenly restored to health from the devastations of those terrific maladies which result from indiscretion! Such persons, before contemplating MARRIAGE. should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote conjugal happiness. Indeed, without this, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately. He who places himself under the care of Dr. Johnston may religiously confide in his honor as a Physician, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.

TO STRANGERS. The many thousands cured at this institution within the last ten years, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. J., witnessed by the Reporters of the papers of many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, is a sufficient guarantee that the afflicted will find a skillful and honorable physician.
